CHRISTMAS PERFORMANCES

A few days ago we wrote to you to provide you with an update on our thoughts regarding the Christmas concerts which are due to begin on Wednesday 8th December. First of all, we would like to thank those parents who have provided valuable feedback over the past few days – as always, we value your comments and suggestions.

Given that we have begun to see an increase in positive covid cases in school in recent days, with both children and staff affected, we feel it is both safe and prudent to adapt the (cont. overleaf)

(from p.1) format that we had planned to ensure that we keep our whole community as safe as we possibly can, including those with underlying health conditions. The government has made it clear that any decision should ultimately be made by the school and must take into account circumstances at the time and our ability to mitigate any risks. In addition, we have a duty to act on any advice given by Public Health England.

You will be pleased to know that the concerts will go ahead at the planned times but instead, we intend to hold each one outside in a covered area of the Reception playground. This way, we can come together, celebrate and hear some wonderful festive songs in a safe and secure environment. Rest assured, we will be working hard over the next few days to prepare for our first concerts in nearly two years and will be looking forward with excitement and relief at being able to welcome parents into school once more to help us celebrate.

SCHOOL NURSE DROP IN SESSIONS

Our school health team are providing a drop in session on Monday 6th December from 9:15-11:00. They are available to offer advice and support on a range of topics including healthy eating, behavioural problems, head lice, hygiene, bed wetting, hearing and vision, emotional health or any other health-related concerns you may have regarding your child.

If you would like to arrange an appointment please contact Allison Tokeley in school on 0208 527 1872 or allison.tokeley@winns.waltham.sch.uk

There will be further drop in sessions in the new year on Monday 17th January and Monday 21st March.
